

Grief and Complicated Bereavement Using the EAGALA Model.

June 25 2017

Objectives:

This workshop is designed to assist practitioners caring for those who are grieving. Special attention will be devoted to assessment, session structure and session progression. Participants will discuss following the client's lead in the equine session through the use of Clean Language Questions (CLQ's) and metaphor. This workshop intends to develop the practitioners willingness to allow the horses to lead the way when faced with the grieving client.

- ▶ Complicated Grief in the arena and how to be mindful of session structure
- ▶ How to identify and use Metaphors throughout session
- ▶ Investigate Movement and Non Judgement
- ▶ Following the horses and clients lead
